New Carolin Gold Corp. Announces Unit Offering

NEWS RELEASE

April 24, 2020 — New Carolin Gold Corp. (the “Company” or “New Carolin”) (TSXV: LAD / OTCBB: LADFF) is pleased to announce a 7,000,000 Unit offering at a price of $0.05 per Unit for gross proceeds of up to $350,000. Each Unit is comprised of one common share and a one common share purchase warrant (“Warrant”) with each Warrant entitling the holder to purchase one additional common share at a price of $0.10 per share for a period of twenty four (24) months from closing. Proceeds of the Unit offering will be used to continue drilling the Company's Ladner Gold Project in southwestern British Columbia and general working capital.

In connection with the private placement, the Company may pay finder's fees on certain subscriptions in accordance with TSX Venture Exchange policy. It is anticipated that certain insiders (directors and officers) of the Company will participate and subscribe for Units under the private placement, but their participation will not be for more than 25% of the total private placement. All securities issued in connection with both offerings are subject to a statutory hold period of four months plus one day from the date of issuance in accordance with applicable securities legislation.

About New Carolin Gold Corp.

New Carolin Gold is a Canadian-based junior company focused on the exploration, evaluation and development of our 100% owned property consisting of 144 square kilometers of contiguous mineral claims and crown grants, collectively known as the “Ladner Gold Project” (Project). The Project is located near Hope, BC in the prospective and under-explored Coquihalla Gold Belt, which is host to several historic small gold producers including the Carolin Mine, Emancipation Mine and Pipestem Mine, and numerous gold prospects.
